

LEARN MORE ABOUT NEW HAMPSHIRE'S TREES, WATER AND WILDLIFE

Did you know that.....

- ❖ One large shade tree cools the air as much as five air conditioners.
- ❖ Communities with healthy natural resources have a better quality of life, improved health, and lower crime rates.

EDUCATIONAL SERIES BEING OFFERED:

❖ 2004 Tree Steward and Earth Team Natural Resource Volunteer Program

Available Locations	Urban Forestry Center Portsmouth, NH	or	NH Fish and Game Concord, NH
Dates	Tuesday, February 3-April 3. (11 sessions)		Thursday, February 5-April 15. (11 sessions)
Time	8:45-4:00pm		8:45-4:00pm

- $50.00 Course Fee
- Participants are asked to volunteer a minimum of 40 hours over 2 years through a wide variety of projects and activities that help improve natural resources.

To get on the mailing list to receive additional information and or an application packet for the upcoming program send your name and mailing address to:

UNH Cooperative Extension
Tree Steward and Earth Team
Natural Resource Volunteer Program
200 Bedford Street
Manchester, NH 03101
Or call Pam Doherty at 1-603-629-9494 ext. 120

Information is also available on-line at:

<http://www.ceinfo.unh.edu/Forestry/Documents/treestew.htm>

The series is being sponsored by UNH Cooperative Extension, the NH Division of Forest and Lands, and the U.S. Forest Service, in partnership with the Natural Resources Conservation Service, and Merrimack, Rockingham, and Strafford County Conservation Districts. Together these organizations promote awareness and care of natural resources in New Hampshire's cities and towns.

The University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension is an equal opportunity educator and employer.
UNH, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture and New Hampshire counties cooperating.
"A fee is charged for this program to cover costs. A limited number of scholarships are available to individuals unable to pay."